

In the long history of humankind (and animal kind, too) those who learned to collaborate and improvise most effectively have prevailed.

(Charles Darwin)

When the profession evolves, how does regulation keep up?

Elaine Buckley, Health & Care Professions Council, United Kingdom

Fiona Campbell, College of Physiotherapists of Ontario, Canada

Raul Agustin, Professional Regulatory Board for Physical and Occupational Therapy, Philippines

Richard Woolf, Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy, USA

United Kingdom

When the scope of physiotherapy practice changes significantly, how do we ensure we maintain public safety?

CANADA

Controlled Acts

Fiona Campbell PT

College of Physiotherapists of
Ontario www.collegept.org

What do you do when the scope of practice expands through statute, but the associated regulatory and legislative changes to implement it are not in place?

Philippines

What do you do when the regulations are dated and difficult to change, but practice and education keeps evolving?